Mission Statement

Our mission at New Antioch Institute is to raise up young people to become biblically saturated, Christ centred, cultural change agents.

New Antioch is a learning institute dedicated to those who are looking for a learning and growth experience before they enter the labour force or moving on to further post-secondary education.

Post-secondary education, especially an education in the Liberal Arts, has consistently been losing ground in influence and impact in an overly specialized environment.

We are committed to a robust and intentional liberal arts education that is uniquely and distinctly Christian; a commitment to reformed, theological, and experiential learning cohorts; a commitment to building a strong student community through an academically rigorous environment; building strong character; and exemplary mentorship by faculty and leadership.

New Antioch wants to graduate followers of Christ who are committed to living out their faith in every area of life, whether that is in the home, the marketplace, education, medicine, or government. Essentially, serving Christ the Lord with all of their heart, soul, mind, and strength.

Vision Statement

Our vision for New Antioch Institute is to graduate leaders who shape culture, living faithfully under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

"You parents can provide no better gift for your children than an education in the liberal arts. House and home burn down, but an education is easy to carry along"

Martin Luther

Admissions

The Admission Committee reviews each application as a whole, considering all aspects of a potential student's life when evaluating institutional fit. New Antioch seeks well rounded applicants who demonstrate a balance of academic ability, spiritual maturity, work ethic, and an inquiring mind. New Antioch will take into consideration the reality that academic records are not the end of all things and will strongly consider those applicants who demonstrate a passion to learn, a strong work ethic, a cooperative spirit, and a passion to engage the world through a strong commitment to the Lordship of Jesus Christ for all of life.

Statement of Faith

The Bible. We believe the Bible to be the complete Word of God; that the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testament in the original manuscripts, were written under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, and were entirely free from error. Further, we believe that the Bible is the final authority in all matters of faith and practice.
(2 Timothy 3:16-17; 2 Peter 1:19-21)

The Trinity. We believe in one God, eternally existing in three Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Each Person is fully God, sharing the same nature and attributes.
(Genesis 1:26; Deut. 6:4; Matthew 3:16-17, 28:19)

God the Father. We believe in God the Father, an infinite, personal Spirit, perfect in holiness, wisdom, power, and love. We believe He concerns Himself mercifully in the affairs of men, hears and answers prayer, and saves from sin and death all who come to Him through Jesus Christ.
(John 16:23-27, Galatians 4:4-6, Ephesians 1:3, 17-23)

God the Son. We believe that Jesus Christ is God's eternal Son. He is true God and true man, conceived by the Holy Spirit, and born of the virgin Mary. We believe in His sinless life, in His death on the cross as our Substitute, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension into Heaven, in His intercession on behalf of His people, and in His personal return.
(Matthew 1:18,23; Luke 24:1-8; John 1:1,14; Acts 1:11; 2 Corinthians 5:19-21; Phil. 2:5-11; Hebrews 4:14-16; 7:24-25; 1 John 2:1; Revelation 19:11-20)

God the Holy Spirit. We believe the Holy Spirit is a Person and is fully God. He convicts of sin, convinces of righteousness and of judgment, turns the lost soul toward God, indwells every believer, and guides, empowers, and gifts believers for the work of ministry.
(Matthew 28:19; John 3:5, 16:7-15; Acts 1:8; 1 Corinthians 6:11,19, 12:4-13; Ephesians 3:16, 4:11-16)

Satan. We believe that Satan exists as an evil personality, as the originator of sin, and as the archenemy of God and man.
(Ezekiel 28:11-15; Isaiah 14:12-20; Ephesians 6:10-12; 1 Peter 5:8)

Man. We believe that man, both male and female, was divinely created in the image of God; that man sinned, becoming guilty before God; is a sinner by nature and choice, and thereby incurred physical and spiritual death.
(Genesis 1:26-27, 2:7-3:19; Romans 3:23, 5:12-21, 6:23)

Salvation. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. It is based on the sovereign grace of God and was purchased for us by Christ on the cross. We can be declared righteous only by faith in the all-sufficient sacrifice and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. Those whom God has specially called to Himself shall be divinely preserved and finally perfected in the image of the Lord.

(John 1:12, 3:37, 5:24; Romans 8:31-39; Ephesians 1:11-14, 2:8-10; 1 Timothy 2:5, 1 Peter 1:3-5)

Future Things. We believe in the personal, bodily, and glorious return of the Lord Jesus Christ; in the bodily resurrection of the just and unjust; in the eternal blessedness of the redeemed, and in the judgment and conscious eternal punishment of the wicked.

(John 5:29; 1 Corinthians 3:11-15, 15:51-58; 2 Corinthians 5:6-10; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18; 2 John 8; Revelation 19:20)

The Local Church. We believe that the church is the spiritual body of which Christ is the Head. The true church is composed of all persons who through saving faith in Jesus Christ have been transformed by the Holy Spirit. This body expresses itself in local assemblies whose members have been baptized upon credible confession of Jesus Christ, and have associated themselves for the purpose of worship, discipleship, evangelism, fellowship, and service. The ordinances of the local church are believer's baptism by immersion, and the Lord's Supper. The local church is an independent body that voluntarily associates with other churches for the purpose of furthering the Kingdom of God.

(Matthew 28:19-20; Acts 1:8, 2:41-47; Romans 6:1-11; Ephesians 5:21; Colossians 1:15-18; Hebrews 10:24-25; 1 Corinthians 11:23-31)

The Church and State. We believe that each local church is self-governing in function and must be free from interference by any ecclesiastical or political authority. We further believe that every human being is directly responsible to God in matters of faith and life, and that each should be free to worship God according to the dictates of their conscience.

(Matthew 22:21; Romans 13:1; 1 Timothy 2:1-6)

Christian Conduct. We believe that the supreme task of every believer is to glorify God in his or her life. The believer should live blamelessly before the world, be a faithful steward of their possessions, and seek to realize for himself or herself the full stature of maturity in Christ.

(1 Corinthians 10:31; Colossians 1:28; 1 Timothy 6:6-9; 1 Peter 1:14-15)

Creation. We believe that in the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. By God's command the universe came into existence. All of God's creation was pronounced by God to be good and was created to glorify God. God is the giver of all life. God upholds and sustains His creation.

(Genesis 1:1; Exodus 20:11; Nehemiah 9:6; Colossians 1:16; Hebrews 11:3)

Marriage. We believe that marriage is between one man and one woman. Man and woman were created by God to complement one another emotionally, physically, and spiritually for the purpose of relationship and to have the blessing of children. We believe that God intends sexual intimacy to occur only between a man and a woman who are married to each other. We believe that God has commanded that no intimate sexual activity be engaged in outside of a marriage between a man and a woman. (Genesis 2:18-24; Mark 10:5-9; Ephesians 5:21-33; Psalm 127:3)

Gender and Sexuality. We believe that God wonderfully and immutably creates each person as male or female. These two distinct, complementary genders together reflect the image and nature of God. Rejection of one's biological sex is a rejection of the image of God within that person.

We believe that any form of sexual immorality (including adultery, fornication, homosexual behavior, incest, bestiality, and use of pornography) is sinful and offensive to God. We believe that God offers redemption and restoration to all who confess and forsake their sin, seeking His mercy and forgiveness through Jesus Christ.

We believe that every person must be afforded compassion, love, kindness, respect, and dignity. Hateful and harassing behavior or attitudes directed toward any individual are to be repudiated and are not in accord with Scripture nor the doctrines of New Antioch Institute.

Sanctity of Human Life. We believe that all human life is sacred and created by God in His image. Human life is of inestimable worth in all its dimensions, including unborn babies, the aged, the physically or mentally challenged, and every other stage or condition from conception through natural death. We are therefore called to defend, protect, and value all human life.

We believe that in order to preserve the function and integrity of New Antioch Institute as a Christian ministry, and to provide a biblical role model to the students of New Antioch Institute and the community, it is imperative that all persons employed by New Antioch Institute in any capacity, or who serve as volunteers, or who attend as students, agree to and abide by this statement of faith and practice.
